

Research Portal Use Acknowledgment

This acknowledgment, together with the Terms of Use located on <https://www.gardeningresponsibly.org.au/> (Website), govern your use of the Research Portal hosted by Nursery & Garden Industry Pty Ltd (GR) on the Website.

You are only authorised to access or use the Research Portal if you accept and agree to this acknowledgment. Your continued use of the Research Portal is acceptance of, and agreement to be bound by, this acknowledgment any changes made to it from time to time, which are effective immediately.

You acknowledge that:

- (a) risk modelling is an imperfect science, and that the Research Portal merely provides a standardised way to assess how likely it is a plant will behave in a certain way in a target region based on current evidence, and does not provide a definitive answer to whether a plant will become invasive;
  - (b) the risk assessments on the Research Portal may change:
    - (i) at any time and without notice; and
    - (ii) as new evidence becomes available;
  - (c) the Research Portal cannot be used to conduct risk assessments with respect to aquatic plant species;
  - (d) the Research Portal is a user-driven platform and exists to facilitate information sharing by users, and only plants that have been assigned an Official Risk Rating have been assessed by a GR committee;
  - (e) the usefulness, effectiveness, accuracy, comprehensiveness and continued availability of the Research Portal depends on factors that are outside GR's control, including, but not limited to:
    - (i) climatic events (such as bushfires, droughts, floods and hail);
    - (ii) market volatility;
    - (iii) shifting fashions and trends in gardening;
    - (iv) changing government priorities;
    - (v) changing leadership and priorities of key partner organisations; and
    - (vi) the fact that natural systems are inherently dynamic; and
  - (f) any material or information you contribute to the Research Portal enters into the public domain (including any commercial in confidence knowledge you contribute). For more information, see the Terms of Use located on the Website.
